The three great festivals of the year, -- Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, --are all of them essentially festivals of joy. They are, therefore, the touchstones of our spiritual health; forthere is no surer test of that health than ones capacity for joy. The up-welling of joy in the heart is the up-welling of the very spirit of life; the very rhythm and rhyme of the world, beating full in the heart of man; the sign and assurance of his being in harmony with the music to which the world moves. It is at Christmas that this tide of the years joy is at the full. No festal season is so rich in its varied expressions of gladness; song and story, rite and...
