While Cicero was quaestor in Sicily, - the first public office which he ever held, and the only one to which he was then eligible, being but just thirty years old, (for the Roman laws required for one of the humblest of the great offices of state the very same age which our American Constitution requires for one of the highest,) - he paid a visit to Syracuse, then among the greatest cities of the world. The magistrates of the city, of course, waited on him at once, to...
