Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from My Job Contest The main reason for the My Job Contest was to improve employe attitudes, and we believe it was accomplished in two ways. First, the contest was designed to put the accent on the positive - to draw to the employe s attention the many good things about his job and to encourage him to think about these things in a constructive way. The second contribution came from what we were able to learn about our employes thinking through the systematic study made of the letters. This study provided information which was helpful in planning further improvements. There are those who believe that employes working for an industrial organization are slaves to the conveyor belt - they are plodding in a mass to their hopeless destiny - without incentives to progress - they are just numbers - they are ripe for revolution against the American form of government and the whole Free Enterprise system. Having spent many years of my life rubbing elbows with other workers, I am convinced that these prophets of doom have completely missed the boat. Of course there are gripes. It is an old American custom to find and discuss things that are wrong. It is apt to continue. A bit of simple homespun philosophy has run like a thread through all of the material issued during the contest, and that is - Let s look at the doughnut instead of the hole. It s just as simple as that. Though we had planned to make as scientific a study as possible of the actual letters in an effort to reveal employe attitudes, the result of the two years work...
