Edward Everett Hale, offered the following prayer: For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Behold, I shew you a mystery, he writes. I make plain to you that that has been a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. Father, these who have known him best, these who have loved him, they come to thee to ask thy strength for weakness, for light in darkness, and that thou wilt interpret unto them the lessons of...
