You may be an apostle, prophet, evangelist, teacher, or pastor. You may be a church administrator, elder, deacon, usher, chorister, or Bible class teacher. Perhaps you even lead a fellowship group or assist in other ministries in your church. All of these are important services to your fellowship. But do you realize that as important as these functions are, they are not the ultimate purpose of Christianity? The value we attach to all things is determined by our understanding and appreciation of their purpose. If we do not understand the basic reasons why God created Christianity, how can we fulfill our role in His kingdom and qualify for rewards at the end? How can we truly value our relationship with God?
