Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Fifty Million Strong: Or Our Rural Reserve The Country Life movement is one of the most remarkable and significant facts of our day. It seems hardly credible that the first national commission was appointed in 1908. That any movement in so brief a time should have gripped the thought of the leaders of American life and should have created so extensive and high grade a literature upon the subject, is itself as fine a tribute to the importance of the work as could be imagined. The rural population of the United States includes over one-half of the entire population. We include, in the term rural, villages and towns not exceeding twenty-five hundred in population. The thirteenth census revealed the following facts: That in only six of the forty-eight states was there a decrease in the rural population; eight states increased over fifty per cent; six between thirty and fifty per cent; twelve between twenty and thirty per cent; ten between ten and twenty per cent, and only sixteen of the entire number of states increased less than ten per cent. The value of farm property for the same period increased over one hundred per cent and aggregates at the present time more than forty billions of dollars. By common consent, the church is at the very heart of the rural life movement. If a body of men had been appointed to exalt the relation of the church to rural community life, they could not possibly have done it more effectively than it was done by the report of the first national commission on the rural life movement. That report is notable in the remarkable way...
