Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address Delivered in Christ Church, at the Funeral of Joseph W. Ingraham At a meeting of the Primary School Committee, held Sept.5, 1848, the death of. the late Joseph W. Ingraham was formally announced in a few brief remarks by the Rev. Mr. Woart, who moved that a Committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the Board, at the recent death of their associate. The Chair appointed as such Committee, Messrs. Woart, Sumner, Bumstead, Brown and Sampson, who retired and shortly returned, and reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, This Board have heard with feelings of deep regret the announcement of the death of their late associate, Joseph W. Ingraham, who was its senior member, Chairman of the Executive Committee, and also Chairman of the Committee on School Houses. Resolved, That the lively interest always manifested by Mr. Ingraham for the prosperity of our Schools, his constant, unwearied and successful exertions to promote their welfare, and elevate their character, with no remuneration for his arduous labors, save the satisfaction of witnessing their happy results, commend him not only to the highest regards of this Board, but to the grateful remembrance of our community, and to all the friends of education. Resolved, That in rendering this token of respect to our departed associate, we feel it to be but a feeble tribute for the services of one whose unremitting devotion to the cause of education so absorbed his mind, that he may be regarded almost as a martyr to the advancement of its interests. Resolved, That the above resolutions be transmitted to the relatives of the...
