Excerpt: . in the complete need, duty, responsibility, and religion of Man. By losing sight of this fact, public opinion, upon all matters, is drawn violently, first in one direction, then in another; believing for the time that each new theory or idea is the sum total of everything. A glance at the history of thought shows the truth of this, and what enormous influences for good and for evil, new schools special processes) have, and have had over the histories and destinies of Man. Reason and Metaphysics. The relation of Reason to Metaphysics should also be outlined. Metaphysic has been called the science of Mind. But till we know what Mind is,1 not only shall we be helpless to write a science upon it, but even to speculate with regard to it in any real and intelligent manner. For immediately we sever Mind from...
