Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from An Ex-Slaveholder's View of the Negro Question in the South Heretofore the Race Question in the United States has been local, sectional and more or less sentimental. But now it is one of the most important National questions before us; and the necessity of dealing; not only with the Black man and with the remnant of the Red man in continental America. but with the Hawaiian, the Japanese, the Chinaman and the Philippino in our new Pacific Islands and with the mixed races in our new West Indian Islands, makes it a highly important question. That History is philosophy teaching by example is a saying as old as Cicero. Ix: let us look at the history of our contact with other races dispassionately and take lessons calmly for our future from what has occurred in our past. I suppose that Gail Hamilton's contention will be admitted that If God made the white man white, the yellow man yellow, and the black man black, He intended for the white man to remain white, the yellow man yellow and the black man black. He prevents the loss of species in the lower animals by the infecundity of hybrids. He seems to have protected the integrity of race types among men by Race Antagonism. At any rate race antagonism is a patent and a potent factor which must be reckoned with in any philosophical study of history; and the effect, of race antagonism. visible everywhere and always whenever different races conic into contact, is no where more visible than in the contact of our race with other races. What our race-history was in prehistoric times we...
