One day, I managed all the courage I had and walked in my parents room. Mom, Dad, I want to go to Israel. What, honey? Where did that come from? Mom asked. Honey, this is not the right time at all. Your mom is sick, remember? We need to do everything we can to help Mom get better, Dad added. I took one look at Mom then at Dad and the tears just started to flow down my face. I was inconsolable. In The Tree of Life: Meet The Solomons, 11-year-old Tamar reminds us what it means to have faith when her mother is diagnosed with cancer. Tamar, desperately hoping to save her, travels from New York to Israel with her brother Reuben in search of the tree that God promises to have healing power. Through this heart-warming story, relearn the importance of faith and marvel at the things God can do for us when we truly believe in His words.
