Brian Johnson was the bass player for the Toronto band Ziska Road. He is charged with murder and waiting in a detention center for his trial. Brian can't remember anything about the murder. All he can remember are the times with the band. He is frightened and haunted by the fact he doesn't know if he's guilty or innocent. His lawyer tries to get Brian to remember that fateful day. In the meantime, Brian gains new perspective and insight into his life. As the trial date looms, Brian is frightened he will spend the rest of his life in prison. Did he do it?.
