Excerpt from Rhymes From the Foothills Johnny Behind The Duce By A. L. Freebairn With a face as blank as a heathen god That sits on a temple wall, Frank Lou would bet on a poker hand To win or lose it all. He could hold a straight, or a royal flush, And never bat an eye, Or bluff you out on a pair of treys, When the stakes were plenty high. In the poker room of the old hotel I have often watched him play; He always seemed to have lots of cash, But seldom he had to pay. I saw many a rancher s roll of bills To the yellow race pay toll, And many a wild remittance man Hand over his father s dole. Still, they all agreed Frank Lou was square, Just a hound of hell for luck And a knack of filling a royal straight, Which is quite a hand to buck. Till one night young Johnny Ryan, Who rode for the W.R., Blew into town with some of the boys And...
